

OHA Canada for English Language Learners

WELCOME • 欢迎 • ЖЕЛАННЫЙ • TERVETULOA
WITAMY • 어서 오십시오 • HERZLICH WILLKOMMEN

MIX & MATCH 2

Questions to challenge comprehension on a wide range of common issues...Including hockey!

1. What is the name for a baby cat? _____
2. What colour is made when red is mixed with yellow? _____
3. What is the name for the area in a hockey rink between the blue lines? _____
4. What month comes after February? _____
5. When one hockey team has more players on the ice due to penalties received by the other team, they are said to be on a ....: _____
6. Which of these animals commonly lives near humans in North America? (circle one)
  - a) Polar bears
  - b) Coyotes
7. What does the idiom (a common local phrase) "It's not rocket science" mean? (circle one)
  - a) It's not complicated
  - b) Slow down
8. If a hockey player throws a stick, or trips a player from behind, to stop a breakaway, the player that was interfered with will be awarded a....? _____
9. Which of these rooms in a home would be most likely to contain a fridge and stove? (circle one)
  - a) A bathroom
  - b) A kitchen
10. What is the nickname for the upper area of the goal, just below the crossbar and above the goaltender's shoulders? _____

ANSWERS:

1. What is the name for a baby cat?
  - A baby cat is called a kitten.
2. What colour is made when red is mixed with yellow?
  - Mixing red and yellow makes orange.
3. What is the name for the area in a hockey rink between the blue lines?
  - The area of the ice between the blue lines called the neutral zone.
4. What month comes after February?
  - The month of March comes after February.
5. When one hockey team has more players on the ice due to penalties received by the other team, they are said to be on a ...:
  - The team is said to be on a powerplay.
6. Which of these animals commonly lives near humans in cities in North America?
  - Coyotes often live in or near cities in North America.
7. What does the idiom (a common local phrase) "It's not rocket science" mean?
  - "It's not rocket science" is a North American idiom meaning "It's not complicated".
8. If a hockey player throws a stick or trips a player from behind to stop a breakaway, the player that was interfered with will be awarded a ...?
  - The player that was interfered with will be awarded a penalty shot.
9. Which of these rooms in a home would be most likely to contain a fridge and stove?
  - The fridge and stove are generally found in the kitchen.
10. What is the nickname for the upper area of the goal, just below the crossbar and above the goaltender's shoulders?
  - The area at the top of the goal is nicknamed the "top shelf".